

Marty Markl appointed as new Board member of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's (TPWD) Operation Game Thief (OGT) Committee

IWC is privileged to announce that on September 21st 2017 IWC International Liaison Marty Markl was appointed by Texas Parks and Wildlife Executive Director Carter Smith as a new Board member of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's (TPWD) Operation Game Thief (OGT) Committee.

Marty's continued commitment to game wardens and the operation game thief program of Texas as well as all wildlife crimestoppers programs within the International Wildlife Crimestoppers Association across North America, will be a great benefit to wildlife protection through education and enforcement ensuring wildlife sustainability for future generations.

Thanks to the extensive contributions of this important volunteer Committee, Texas game wardens have been able to substantially increase their effectiveness to protect Texas lands, waters, fish wildlife and people. As a board member Marty Markl will also work on behalf of Texas hunters, anglers, outdoor enthusiasts and private landowners who care about the conservation of our wildlife resources. His appointment becomes effective immediately and we know him to be an effective advocate supporting global wildlife law enforcement and the scientific management of wildlife.
